

The project

In the light of recent and upcoming reforms of the Greek Code of Civil Procedure and the implementation of the Mediation Directive (2008/52/EC) into Greek Law, the European Commission and the Academy of European Law (ERA) organise a series of events on mediation and alternative dispute resolution in Greece in 2012-2013.

A publicity campaign raising awareness of the series of activities is the starting point of this project. The kick-off conference in Athens will form the basis for a discussion forum with a European dimension. Three interactive and practice-oriented workshops on mediation in Thessaloniki, Patras and Heraklion will allow reaching the legal public from different parts of Greece.

Objective

This conference will highlight the importance of mediation as an alternative dispute resolution method and the opportunities offered by mediation for the Greek legal and general public. The contribution of international and Greek experts with various professional backgrounds will ensure the exchange of experiences and a better understanding of mediation.

Key topics

- Presentation of the legal framework of mediation in Greece and the EU
- Different types of mediation
- Role and skills of a mediator
- Mediation in practice: examples and best practice from Greece and the EU
- Litigation v. mediation
